

Lean Six Sigma Leadership Training

Overview

For any Continuous Improvement program to be a success, the Leadership team needs to be fully aware of its role and its responsibilities. They need to understand Continuous Improvement. The leadership team are the standard bearers in the constant pursuit for perfection.

Lean Six Sigma Leadership Training offered by Alora Consultants focuses on key information a Leader needs to know when undertaking a Continuous Improvement program. The format of the training will be tutor led. The training is very interactive thus there is a lot of emphasis on group dynamics and ensuring the attendees participate and interact with the trainer and each other. The training is conducted through presentations, simulations, role plays, group exercises, discussions and case studies.

Duration

This is a 1-day training program.

Course Objectives

By the end of this training programme the attendees will be able to:

1. Understand Continuous Improvement
2. Understand Lean Six Sigma methodology and DMAIC.
3. Understand Change Management methodology.
4. Understand the elements of a Continuous Improvement Strategy.
5. Understand the roles and responsibilities of the Leadership team.

Content

The program includes the key information a Leader needs to know when involved in a Continuous Improvement (CI) program. The program includes an overview of Continuous Improvement, Lean Six Sigma and DMAIC. The attendees are brought through a Lean Six Sigma exercise which teaches the key philosophy of Lean Six Sigma. The discussion then turns to the CI Strategy. What elements make up a CI Strategy? How it should be put together and how it should be aligned to the Business Strategy. The training then focuses on the structures that are required for a CI program to be successfully before moving onto Change Management and finishing with the Role of the Leader in CI.

Day 1

9:00 am	Overview of CI & Lean Six Sigma
	Lean Six Sigma Simulation
	CI Strategy
	CI Organisational Structure – Roles & Responsibilities
	Overview of Change Management
5:00 pm	Role of the Leader in CI

Evaluation

The training will be evaluated by the reaction of the trainees to the training programme. This will be conducted through a formal feedback form at the end of the training event. The results of the feedback will be shared with the Client.

Certification

Each attendee will receive a certificate of completion of the training course.

Who should attend?

This course is intended for Leadership teams and those employees that hold Senior positions within an organization.
